DECISION and ORDER
07-CV-212C

Plaintiff Theresa Williams, proceeding pro se, has brought this action seeking relief from certain taxes and penalties apparently imposed upon her by the Internal Revenue Service,¹ and has moved for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. After filing the complaint, plaintiff has filed a motion requesting that the action be stayed for the reasons set forth in her supporting affidavit. (Docket No 3).

Accordingly, the Court hereby grants plaintiff's motion to proceed as a poor person, and orders that the instant action be stayed until further Order.² Plaintiff is directed to make appropriate application to the Court by no later than October 15, 2007, or the action will be dismissed without prejudice.

SO ORDERED.

WILLIAM M. SKRETNY
United States District Judge

¹ While plaintiff designates the "Internal Revenue Department" as the defendant in this proceeding, it is clear from the allegations of the complaint, and the nature of the relief that she is seeking, that the proper defendant in the action is the United States Internal Revenue Service.

² Given plaintiff's request that the action be stayed, the Court has not screened the complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).
